Historic Barns Tour

Follow the Historic Barns Tour through Bridgewater, Manchester, and Sharon townships to see examples of nineteenth and twentieth century structures associated with one of the region's strongest industries: agriculture.

Greek Revival Tour

Those interested in Greek Revival Architecture can choose from several routes to view the style as expressed through a range of building materials (from fired and adobe brick to wood siding to cobblestone) and a variety of forms typical from the early settlement through the post-Civil War periods.

Esek Pray Trail Tour

The Esek Pray Trail travels through Salem and Superior Townships and features a variety of exceptional nineteenth century residences, one-room schoolhouses, and other resources tied to the family of Esek Pray, a founding leader of the State of Michigan, and his contemporaries.

German Heritage Tour

On the German Heritage Tour, tourists venture onto the back roads of Freedom, Lodi, and Scio townships to witness a landscape dotted with traditional farmsteads associated with the State's largest and first German settlement.

Willow Run: Arsenal of Democracy Story Map

The Willow Run Bomber Plant was constructed during 1941-1943 as part of the WWII home front. It took the town of Ypsilanti from a rural farming community with regional manufacturing concerns into an international bastion of industry that continued well into the 20th century.

Ann Arbor Modern Tour

Sample the extensive residential work undertaken by architecture professors at the University of Michigan for their colleagues and other professionals in the Ann Arbor Hills neighborhood between 1950 and 1970. This period of building resulted in a remarkable collection of fine architect-designed homes in the Modern style.

Welcome

TO HISTORIC WASHTENAW COUNTY

Washtenaw County, Michigan, has a rich, cultural heritage reflected in its numerous preserved historical sites. We invite you to explore all Washtenaw County offers! Some attractions do not have regular visiting hours, but most are available by special appointment for individual or group tours. Visitors are urged to contact a site prior to visiting to confirm available hours and accessibility.

This brochure is presented by the Washtenaw County Historical Consortium, consisting of various historical agencies, whose goal is to promote local-area history. Funding was possible through the generosity of the Washtenaw County Convention and Visitor Bureau, Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission, and Washtenaw County Office of Community and Economic Development. For more information about the Historical Consortium, visit: www.wchconsortium.org.
